By submitting your application for any position with the City of El Dorado, you understand and agree to the following statements.

You represent and warrant that the contents of your application are true, to the best of your knowledge and belief; and that falsification, misrepresentation or omission of information could be just cause of dismissal at any time.

You understand that you may be required to take relevant employment testing, for the purpose of determining your capability of performing the duties of the position. In the event you need reasonable accommodation for this testing or for the interview process, if selected, you understand that City of El Dorado will make this accommodation. The City of El Dorado reserves the right to require medical documentation concerning the need for the accommodation.

If you are selected for employment by the City of El Dorado, you agree to participate in the appropriate examinations, determined by the position, which may include pre-employment physical examination and drug screening, psychological, and physical endurance examinations as well.

You understand that employment with the City of El Dorado is "at will", which means that either you or the City can terminate the employment relationship at any time, with or without prior notice, and for any reason not prohibited by statute. All employment is continued on that basis.

The City of El Dorado is an Equal Opportunity Employer.
